BOND STREET
Guess what? We did it again for the second time! We won another softball game. Our second win of the season. This time we beat Father Mac's. The game was held at the same point, the score being 11 to 10. It was a real exciting, nerve-racking game. At the end of the seventh inning our score was tied 10 to 10, but thanks to Sue Connolly we broke the tie, thus winning the game in the ninth inning. Scoring the most runs, three for our team was Mona Sansone, right fielder. Maria Monelli and Ann Wiggin both scored two runs each. Making one run each were Sue Connolly, Jeannette Ciccia, Ann Bethel, and Joanne Thomas. If it hadn't been for Ann Wiggin's superb catching, we might have lost the game. Her catching caused several outs for Father Mac's team.

Tuesday afternoon we made shunks out of black construction paper and puppets. Later that same day, we had an exciting contest. The groups were divided by age levels. Meg O'Keefe, age 6, won a bracelet and necklace by drawing a pretty girl. Ellen Lovell, age 9, won a old-fashioned rocking chair by creating a picture of a woman sitting in a rocking chair. Lastly, an imagination frame was drawn by Sandra Immonen, winning her a bracelet.

The next day we did crazy, and we did some rubbing in the morning and in the afternoon we created black construction puppets out of paper bags and construction paper.

Well, now we are proud to say we have the cleanest playground in Norwood! Carl divided us into two teams and she promised that the team who collected the most rubbish would win lollipops. We collected five bags of rubbish, and the playground leader decided that the two teams were tied, so we got lollipops. What a way to get to keep the playground clean! When Carole came to the playground Thursday morning we were carrying a large roll of wallpaper. To our surprise she taught us how to make a mural. On the mural we got to draw people skating. When we finish we sure hope our masterpiece comes out good!

Well, now we are approaching the week. This morning we made favors for the Norwood Holiday. This afternoon Paul is coming to teach us how to make pins out of wood and macaroni. Can't wait for her visit!

See you next week!

On Tuesday the boys had a session of barrel racing. Peter leader, Joe, defeated Gerard Shea for the first time this year. However, Bubba Coughner claims he was the winner. Next week when Tom Deheby heard of this challenge, he immediately contacted Bubba. The Gladiators of York City have now gone on a physical fitness kick. Such names as Hercules, Deheby, Samson, Hercules, and Tom Deheby are listed as outstanding members of the Gladiatorial School. The arts and crafts program of the shipment of wild geese and lions from Africa and the East. Until the shipment arrives, the only birds they have are Joey Felt's kitten and Joey Camposino.

Perhaps an excursion to a zoo would be a good idea. We are all now looking forward to the Nantasket outing next week.

PLEASANT PARK GIRLS

On Wednesday we played a strange new game. The object was to run a certain distance with a bag full of pennies. We had to hand them to them, take them off, and carry them in a bag back to the next person in line. On Wednesday we had our first game. We forfeit their game to Ellis Gardens.

In the afternoon we played checkers, bean bags, and four square.

Jack DeCosta came in first on his red blazer and Mike Lowery came in second. We are sorry to say the Steve Korch was hurt racing around Key McGowan. In the afternoon, we played soccer. The score was 3-3. Charlie Hopkins, Art Harris, and Tony Rondinelli each scored one goal. Steve Korch, the pee wees remained undefeated as they defeated Edean, 3-2. Ricky McGowan was the MVP in all three games.

On Wednesday morning most of the kids signed up for the playground tennis tournament which starts Monday. It looks like it's going to be close one in the singles. In the doubles Halloran and Smith should walk away with the crown. In the afternoon the midgets were knocked from the undefeated ranks by the Callahan. Baldwin pitched a no-hitter. He threw the ball.

Thursday morning after a nice, quiet, peaceful, gorgeous week, Joey Smith, "the human recorder," came back. This week we leave you with these questions: When are the Cosgrove brothers going to move? Did "Hinky" really beat the county Hopkins in tennis? Did you ever pop him? King Swamp really catch that many turtles? Finally, can Jerry beat Paul in the final of the water balloons?

SHATTUCK BOYS
"Porkey's back" armed with water balloons, but under the watchful eye of Dr. Drummy the invader was repelled. His defense was quickly changed to the strategic sidewalk leading to Decey's, the source of supplies for the team. The direction that stronghold was held.

Ray, the Surf, pitched Wednesday. We were victorious. The score was 2-1. Ray threw his new pitch, the mattress ball. "I throw it up and they say it's high," he explained. Wednesday, we were tied and on his Surf claimed it was a lively ball. "I could even feel a faint pulse."

"I would just get the girl friend status of Little Weasel straightened out. Each ball player gets a free pass for one hour. Hearty claims he had a girl but each game a different one stops at the box office. When confronted he explained, "Well, I don't do it. I'm a girl, but I'm in great demand."

PICKLES
SHATTUCK GIRLS
"You just can't play catch with a water balloon," moaned a soggy Betty. She discovered this all too late for the Ballroom. Bill stage five is as a fitting wing-up to the week's activities.

Tuesday afternoon, we had our picnic in honor of our victorious midgets. Esteemed guests were Mary, whose pitching has shown marked improvement. Spuds, whose pitching was a real stunner. On his great grand slammer, in the game against Oldham, tension and tempers ran high, but we finished 19-8. In our own game, we did not get our victory, but our score was the last of our softball games.

This week we had arts and crafts. We've been making pitholders for several days. The Donovan clan holds the tie for making the most in the shortest period. We are going into business. Paula came on Wednesday and painted. The color of her name pins. The color of her name pins. The color of her name pins.

Among those who made them were Donna Domenica, Janet Downs, and Fay Donovan. In spite of the afternoon showers, many kids showed up to play in Eddie's beanbag tournament.

the big talk around the playground has been about Bob Dylan, and his remarkable guitar. Steve is constantly singing Dylan's songs such as "Mr. Tambourine Man" and "All I Really Want to Do." The Wilson Wonders.

WINSWLOW BOYS
The boys and girls once again went at it in another softball game. The girls, much to our surprise, won by the score of 14-8 in three innings. Umpire Nichols called the game because of unjust arguing among the players which got out of hand. Of course, if the game was played under regulation time, we would have won. We lost because of our pennant race, but the 56 game lead will probably grow larger as the long season ends.

Friday afternoon, the undefeated checker champ, reclaimed his title as the National Checker Champion from Nicholas Stadium. We will represent us in international checkers and Checker Championship, which will be held in our own Nichols Stadium this year.

WINSWLOW GIRLS
Another week of playground has passed. We are busy as beavers painting our "Indian Village." We used blue, black, and white to make our horses, Mary, Valerie, Debbie and Stevie are busy painting.

Our softball team suffered his defeat. The team Higgins sparkled again with another home run.

We all chose Janet Pallock's poem as the prettiest one in the book. Next week we are looking forward to the stageabone. We will tell you all about it next week.

Gal DeCosta pitched another day game and she made the most saves. Barbara, Gera, Pattie, and Paula were strong in the field. Ursula, Ann, Susan, Mary, Lavinia, Beth, Faith, Elaine, Susan, Martin, and Eleanor played well in the outfield. Father McAleer's team will surely have a championship season with these players in the lineup.

Wednesday morning, we made paper elephants. Afterwards we had a contest. Paula's came in first and our team's finished second. Later on, Carol brought her lollipop game. We had fun with it, but Carol beat us all.

Thursday, our intermediates won a much wanted victory over Elliot Park. The side to side with every kind of play. The high point of the game came when Cathy Cosello stepped up to the plate with runners loaded and hit a grand slam. Helga, Valerie, Manne, Paula, Lauri, and Dianah hit well. Tuesday was heartbreaking. We lost to Shattuck, 19 to 6. During our game field efforts were displayed by Gerri Dore, Lorraine, and Marianne. Wednesday, Paula Black made our made wood name pins.

The week ended with an exciting softball game between the boys and girls. The boys won. We were victorious but everyone had fun.

is often treated as fragile cargo because customers demand it and rough handling tends to break up the size. shows or groups and organizations such as clubs which will put on paid shows helping the "Varieties" to raise enough money to carry on its charitable work.

"It's a big job," says Jim Lott. "But no matter what the purpose and aim of this project," said Jim, "is to bring happiness into the lives of those who are shut in for any reason. If we can make those less fortunate than ourselves forget their problems for a few hours, then we've done a good night's work." The troupe has recently received the fourth Blue Ribbon Award for their performance. Patients at the Norwood Hospital were enthusiastic about the show and nearly 80 percent of their private television channel at the hospital. Of significance was that the regular network broadcast during regular network television prime time, 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. and faced stiff competition.

Meeting expenses for their charity work is a problem for the troupe which is constantly on the lookout for groups to sponsor charity.
