was very good, and even some of the boys decided to try it.

So long,

PLEASANT PARK GIRLS

Tuesday morning we won our second Midget game by forfeit. We played a practice game and won 24-0.

Wednesday morning some made clay models for the clay contest next week at the Rec Center. Wednesday afternoon we practiced our softball for the up coming game on Friday. Thursday morning we had arts and crafts and started on plastic bottles containers which we didn't have time to finish because it was time to go to the stage-mobile, at the Rec Center. Everyone enjoyed the show.

Friday morning the intermediates won a hard hitting game over the Endean team, by the score off 11-6. With the stars being M. Gugliotta, N. David, and C. DeMasi.

WINSLOW GIRLS

Hi again from all of us Indians!

This week we decided to make our playground into an Indian reservation. Some of us brought bows and arrows to defend our stomping grounds. Joey DeRose was our Indian Chief while Freddie Russell was in charge of the warriors.

Our Squaws were busy making potholders. Diane Santorpage was the winner for making the most, Janet Palleiko was a close second.

Our smaller Indians journeyed from our reservation to watch the Boston Children's Theatre. Steve DeRose liked the "Three Pigs" best, while Arlene Lyons thought "Rumpelstilskin" was the best.

The midgets kept their first place position by defeating Oldham and Pleasant Park this week. King Swamp's legand had been tarnished the week before as he went hitless but he put on a glow this week as he crashed two homers.

Fox took time out from the kitchen to whip us his famous custard ball. "When you hit it, everybody scatters."

The playground has been the scene of massive political demonstrations this week. The controversy centers around "Fat Charley". King and his efforts to infiltrate the Nantasket outing. Bicycles are carrying "fight for fat" stickers and some of the Shattuck students (described as the "lunatic Fringe) have threatened a sit in to block Daceys in protest of what they describe as an infringement of civil liberties and free speech. A spokesman for the group was interviewed. Dressed in rat boots and obviously needing hygienic care he pushed the hair out of his eyes to comment; "We feel it is the right of the people to speak in defense of good old "Fat Charley" Afterall, calling a playground leader a belly lugger isn't so bad. We do that all the time. So does our leader, Dylan."

Jim caustically remarked, "The lady doth protest too much" and hurling a well aimed water balloon drove the demonstrators back. King Swamp and Ed Spaghetti unleashed their riot turtles, viciously trained Snappers, to disperse the stragglers. Fire hoses would have been called in but the water ban prevented this.

Soccer, one of the more interesting pastimes, has been discontinued due to the deflating of Kevin Coyne's head. It happened when he was skulled with a wayward horseshoe. It also disrupted the horseshoe tourney. No one wanted to play with a bloody horseshoe. Bobby B. and Brother B. arrived but couldn't stay. They promised to return; something about beating Walpole.

See you next week,

Gwopper and the Future
