

Scenes As Hurricane Donna Deals Norwood Savage Blow

STREET FLOODED — Central street in front of the Central Motors was flooded to a depth of over a foot when catch basins failed to carry off the flood waters quick enough. The street was finally blocked off to traffic. (Eugene McLean Photo).
