Norwood Tops Westwood In BRL Tourny Opener

The Norwood Babe Ruth All-Stars took advantage of the long ball to down Westwood 3-1 in first tournament game played Sunday afternoon at Norwood's Gormley Field.

STEPHEN NEWARK

Wins Degree In Architecture

Stephen Newark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Newark, received his Bachelor of Architecture degree recently from the University of Minnesota in Minneapolis. Previously he had earned an Associate in Architecture degree from Wentworth Institute and had studied at the Boston Architectural Center while working for a Cambridge architectural firm.

After graduation he left for a flying trip in northern Minnesota for two weeks before returning to his home in Norwood.

Mr. Newark is an associate now of the Architects' Group at 419 Boylston street, Boston.

Norwood's hard-hitting catcher, John Murray, put his team ahead 1-0 with a first-inning home run. The ball was struck, carrying over 350 feet. Norwood added a run in the second inning on three "successful singles by Bob Begley, Ed Fraher and Norm Johnson. In the fourth inning Bob Begley batted a homer for Norwood's final run.

Norwood's Joe Giampa pitched a fine game, striking out 11, walking none and allowing Westwood four scattered hits. Peter Melinsky led off the second for Westwood with a long double, but Giampa bore down and struck out the next three men to get out of trouble. Westwood added singles in the third and sixth. In the seventh, after one out, O'Leary reached first on an error. After Robert Moffatt tied to left, Mike McGovern drove O'Leary in with a long double for Westwood's lone run.

Defensively, Westwood's infield of Wes Hollis, Richard Moffatt, Robert Moffatt, and Peter Melinsky played a fine game, making many plays of the difficult variety. Frank Sola pitched a good game for Westwood, giving up five hits and a walk, but the long ball did the damage.

The play of the game took place in the seventh inning as leftfielder Machado made a "Mays" type catch to rob Moffatt of a hit.

Norwood now will play the winner of the Dedham-Somerset game next Saturday either at Wilson street or at Dedham at 2 p. m.
