

Weston Tops Nitros, 7-6

The Nitros travelled to Weston on Tuesday night and came out on the short end of a 7-6 ballgame. Poor defense was their downfall as the offense was more than adequate. Jim Gormley pitched a five-hitter but control was his problem as he walked four in the third and fourth when, coupled with three errors, Weston did the bulk of their scoring.

Kermit Smyth led off with Anli's head and scored on a walk and stole second. The Amherst College outfielder scored on Jim Gormley's error.

Tommy Gormley scored on Guy Abbate's single to right. Paul O'Donnell reached on an error but Vito Anello went to the third base.

In the second, the Nitros struck for two more runs as Mike Seery walked and was sacrificed to second by Smyth. Steve Callahan singled him in and Gormley added his own cause by singling to right center on the hit and run. Callahan had such a jump that the feet-footed Middlebury infielder raced home to give the Nitros a 4-0 lead.

Gormley coasted through the first three innings without a hit, but in the fourth Weston struck for three runs as Trowbridge walked. An infield error put two on and a fly ball that dropped safely scored two. A steal of third and a sacrifice fly brought in the third run of the inning. In the fifth, the Nitros got one back as Gormley walked and Crimmins bunted safely. Guy Abbate advanced them both with a bunt down first. Paul O'Donnell then singled in Gormley.

Weston came right back at the first two men walked. A Texas league double to right and a single gave them three runs and a 6-5 lead.

The Nitros came back to tie the score on Al Crowell's single and stole base. Smyth's long fly to right was dropped to send Crowell home with the tying run.

Weston broke the tie in their half of the inning as Grand Knight John Hitter Trowbridge tripled over Bernazzani.

No-Hitters In Pee Wee League Play

The Prescott, Rec Center, and Ellis Garden posted wins Tuesday afternoon in the Norwood Pee Wee League. The Oldham also picked up a win when the Winslow covered the game.

Dan Venturoso also hit a solo homer in the third for the Prescott. Elliot Park scored their lone run in the second on a single by G. Kelley and a triple by B. Kelley.

The Rec Center, behind the no-hit pitching of Linahan, blanked the Cleveland 10-0. The Rec. Center scored three in the third with Radzwicki and Weller with a run, a timely single. They added seven big runs in the fourth.

A ten-strikeout, no-hit performance by Cawley sparked the Ellis Garden team to a 12-0 win over Pleasant Park. Ellis Garden scored six runs in the first with Simoni and Landers connecting for run-producing singles. They added three more in the second with Donovan singling in two of his mates. Ellis Garden closed the scoring with three more runs in the third. Cawley, Donovan, Simoni and Landers collected two hits each for the winners.

Handling Winners Is Easy For The Colonels' Manager

The manager of Norwood's Little League Colonels, Russ Logan, may have brought his team home this year with flying colors, but directing champions to titles is part of Logan's makeup which began very early up on a farm in Nova Scotia.

Born in Halifax, his father, a farmer, raised trotting horses as a hobby. Learning how to drive and train thoroughbreds by the time he was fourteen, Logan was on the racing circuit as a real contender. When he reached his late teens, the young jockey became a natural, stepping from the circle of fairs and regional racing events into the Grand Circuit where he competed in world-known events and at race tracks all over the country. His winning colors topped many a rig, and
