SPORTS SLANTS

The Norwood All-Star teams goes around corners and on in Little League and Babe straightways. The sport has straightways. In sport has been here only about four months but it is catching on fast as about 200 players participate each week. The summer is usually slow but the attendance has been remarkable at the Norwood sport. Anyone can activity Ruth are now out of the run ning as far as tourneys are concerned but all gave a good account of themselves. The and as lar as outmeys are concerned but all gave a good concerned but all gave a good concerned with a good and a good markable at the Norwood spot. Anyone can particularly anyone can can be rented cheaply and seed for the endurance race in which the cars are run one hour steadily with the winners getting with the winners getting trophies. If you think it's easy drop down and try it easy drop down and try it seasy drop down and try it seasy drop down and try it you want to race here's a good place to do it and no-body can get hurt. FACT OR FICTION? Received a copy of the Republican Journal which is published in Belfast, Me., and under the small town section of Knox, Me., there is an interesting item on a couple of Norwood sportsmen. The article reads: "George Harris, senior, who was employed for a time at Roger Drew's chicken farm in Knox, went on a weekend trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley, also of the send trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley, also of the send trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley, also of the send trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley, also of the send trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley, also of the send trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley, also of the send trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley, also of the send trip to Northern Mainwith Rico Kelley.
