Lang-Travers Pitching Team Sparks Local Nine

By FRANK WALL

The Norwood All Star one-two pitching combination of Billy Travers and Greg Lang sparked again as Lang topped the tough Hyde Park team Sunday, and on Monday the best team the local All Stars has faced this year, the Attleboro All Stars, were blanked 3-0 with Travers throwing aspirins at the opposition.

On Saturday it was ten-year-old Chris Dixon the winning pitcher with a fine relief stint against the Dorchester stars at St. Rosenthal field in Dorchester.

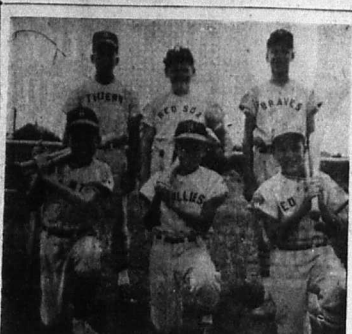

The All Stars were tied in the opener by Hyde Park 3-3 and since then have won seven straight games against top flight competition. The next home game will be tomorrow night against the Plainville stars at Pleasant Street field. Tonight the Submarine boys journey to Holliston for a 6 o'clock encounter.

NORWOOD 3, HYDE PARK 1

This was a revenge game for Greg Lang the big Norwood chucker as he had been robbed of a win under the lights at Monahan field in Hyde Park in the opening 3-3 tie. Lang had his fast ball hopping and the visitors were baffled. The game was scoreless for four innings until Norwood got the first run. With one out Bill Travers laid a double to left to start things off. The next Norwood batter struck out and things looked dim for the Locals.

Mike Martin then got Norwood ahead to stay as he lined a single to center scoring Travers with the big hit.

UNDEFEATED ALL-STARS—Norwood All Stars undefeated in eight games who play Plainville All Stars at Pleasant Street tomorrow night at 6 p.m. L to R, front row: John DeCosta, Bill Porcello, Joe Curran, Back row, Bobby Thornton, Johnny Lynch and Joe Carey. (Poloroid by Frank Wall)

Lynch-Donelan double play it was a big Norwood win. Joe Carey paced the Norwood batters with 2 hits and 6 other Norwood players had one hit a piece including Greg Koval who had been out with an ankle injury all year and lined a single to left in his only time at bat.

Mike Martin, John Lynch, Mike Travers, Greg Lang and John DeCosta had the other Norwood hits. The game saw four umpires calling excellent game in Bob Reed, Charley Saraca, Jim Shea and Charley Miller.

DORCHESTER 1

In this game it was a big All Star fourth inning which sewed it up as they banged out four consecutive hits for four runs and the ball game.

Brian Donelan started for Norwood but had arm trouble in the second with Norwood behind 1-0 and men on second and third and no outs. Greg Lang was called to the mound and the fireballer threw nine pitches and struck out the side and Norwood was out of a big jam.

The submarine team boys got two back in their half of the third. John DeCosta opened with a single and with a bang on balls to Bill Porcello-Charley Little and a single by Brian Donelan it was a 2-1 Norwood lead.

Chris Dixon then entered the game for the Locals as Lang was to pitch against Hyde Park on Sunday but he did his part and the ten-year-old Norwood pitcher Dixon slammed the door on the Dorchester team the final five innings and the Locals bounced in with four runs in the fifth and walked home with an easy win.

The key fielding play in the game was a great throw by centerfielder Joe Carey to third baseman Greg Lang in the fourth which stopped a Dorchester rally.

In the big Norwood fourth, the Locals had 2 out and one on when they erupted for four straight runs and it was all over. In the inning, the locals stole third base three

Nitros Down Orioles, 6-1; Miller Unleashes 2-Hitter

The Norwood Nitros faced the Boston Orioles Friday at the Civic Field and emerged with a 6-1 victory. John Murray swung the big bat with a bases-loaded double that drove in three runs. Steve Callahan also led the way with two line drive singles. Don Miller, pitching his first game in a Nitro uniform, held the Orioles to two hits while striking out six.

The Orioles started fast as Dick Harris led off with a walk. Holmstrom reached on a fielder's choice as Mike Carney threw out Harris on a beautiful play as he went deep behind third base to snuff off a throw to Callahan at second for the force. A stolen base put the runner in scoring position. Thistle then got a check swing single to the opposite field to score the Orioles only run of the game.

The Nitros got two back in their half of the inning as Smyth walked and reached second on a passed ball. Mike Carney blasted a pitch to Nitro run. Mike was forced at second as Mike Crimmins reached first. Don Miller then helped his own cause by belting a triple down the left field line.

Miller ran into a little jam in the second as he walked the first batter and the next man reached on an error. He quickly pitched his way out, was robbed twice in deep right.

The submarine winners for the three games were Dorchester offense John DeCosta, Defenses Joe Carey, Hyde Park offense Mike Martin, Defense Greg Lang and Attleboro offense Joe Carey and Defense Bill Travers.

NORWOOD 3, ATTLEBORO 0
An outstanding Attleboro team that was a fine fielding group was blanked 3-0 by the Norwood All Stars. It was a real close game all the way but in the end it was the effectiveness of the Norwood southpaw Bill Travers that spelled victory for the Locals. Travers had a blazing fast ball and his change up was something to see as 3 of his 13 strike outs came on this pitch.
