Blank Plainville, 14-0 In 4-Homerum Slugfest

By FRANK WALL

On Tuesday the Norwood All Stars sponsored by Colombo's Sub Shop in South Norwood went on a home run spurge as they belted 4 round trippers, three in succession, and one grand slammer by Greg Koval as the club won their 8th straight and on Wednesday it was a thrilling come from behind win against Holiston as the small town gave the Sub boys a real scare and almost pulled the upset.

The record for the team now stands at nine straight with one tie in the 18 games played. Tonight the club journeyed to Wrentham for an engagement with the Wrentham stars and on Monday they travel to Attleboro for a real toughie against the slick fielding Bristol Champs.

On Tuesday it's Natick away for a six o'clock game. The team still has two more weeks of full action and will play more than 20 games before the season ends August 29th.

In the Holiston game the locals used four pitchers with aces Greg Lang and Bill Travers both hurling relief ball. The game ended in sensation all fashion with a man on second and third and two outs. Bill Travers was brought in to relieve Greg Lang and the Holiston batter Skip Bushnell drove a deep fly to right in which Joe Carey, Norwood centerfielder was off at the crack of the bat to make a fine running catch and keep the undefeated streak in tact.

John Lynch took time off from his catching duties and hurled a one-hitter at Plainville Tuesday and with the help of some fine fielding by rightfielder Bobby Thornton and a 11 strikeout performance. It was an easy Norwood win.

NORWOOD 5, HOLISTON 4
This was a real spine thriller as the locals almost saw their undefeated streak broken as they trailed 4-2 going into the fourth but the Sub boys fought back strongly to pull it out. In the second inning Holiston jumped to a 1-0 lead as Ed Peterson belted a homerun over the centerfield fence.

Norwood roared back in the top of the third to take a 2-1 lead. Mike Martin reached on an error to start things off.

John DeCosta then lined a drive which looked like a sure single but Holiston second baseman Stone made a back-batter. Lang received credit for the win.

Norwood 14, Plainville 0
The big home run bat and the pitching of Johnny Lynch coupled with the great outfield play of Bobby Thornton were the big pointers in this game.

The big wallop in the game was a grand slam homerun by Greg Koval in the top of the 6th. Koval, who had missed the entire Little League season with a broken ankle had been on the plate only five times all year, but he tied into a fast ball and smacked it over the leftfield fence for a grand slammer. The locals their last four runs of the game.

With a one-run lead in the top of the third, Johnny Lynch opened things up with a home run to left. Then Chuck Little hit the next pitch over the leftfield fence and to top things off Greg Lang blasted the next pitch high over the leftfield fence for three homers on three pitches and it was a 4-0 Norwood lead.

In the 4th Norwood sewed it up with three more runs with Johnny Lynch, Charley Little and Joe DeCosta coming up with big hits. Lynch was rolling along with a no-hitter with the closest being a liner to right which was in for a hit but Bob Finley was gunned a strike to second for a forcout on the runner at second.

The same Norwood 6th in which Koval belted his long grand slammer and it was a Norwood rout. The only hit of the game for Plainville was a single up the middle by Caddage in the fifth. In this inning Bob Thornton went against the rightfielder for a great effort to rob Finley of a sure homerun.

In the game Chris Dixon also lined out his first hit of the post season game. The submarine runner for the two games were Holiston offense Billy Travers defense Joe Carey, Plainville defense Greg Koval, Defense Bobby Thornton.

Rec Center Pee Wee Boys Edge Endean, 3-2

Tuesday afternoon found the Rec Center winning their eighth straight at the expense of the Endean in Boys' Pee Wee.

The Rec Center came from behind with two runs in the sixth inning to down the Endean 3-2. McGowan doubled home the first Rec Center run in the fourth and hit a two-run homer in the sixth to drive in all the runs. Endean scored single runs in the second and Miner hit a solo homer in the fourth to account for the Endean runs.

Elliot Park scored four runs in the first a single run in the third and two more in the fourth on their way to a 7-0 win over the Prescott. Lepore doubled home one run and Thomas tripled in two more to highlight the four run rally. Cashman pitched a superb game as he allowed only three hits while striking out ten. Hickey had a solo homer in the third and Lepore tripled in the final two runs in the fourth for Elliot Park.

Ellis Garden, behind the fine pitching and clutch hitting of DeDoni downed the Oldham 6-0. O'Donnell struck out nine and belted a two-run homer in the big five run fourth inning. Baker had two runs producing singles for the winners to aid the cause. Oldham scored three runs in the third with T. Conley driving in two runs with a timely single. McConley drove in the final run in the fourth with a single.

Friday afternoon saw the Rec Center shutting out their near rival Ellis Garden by a score of 14-0 and Pleasant Park romping over the Endean in the only games played.

Nitros In Seventh Win; Down Orioles Nine, 7-1

The streaking Nitros won number seven game in their last nine by defeating the Boston Orioles, 7-1 at the Fens stadium. In the shadows of Fenway Park, where the Red Sox were being the Baltimore Orioles, the Nitros had an explosion of their own as they scored four runs in the fifth to break up a close pitcher's duel. Jim Gormley picked up the victory as he yielded only one hit while striking out seven.

Norwood picked up a run in the first as leadoff batter Jack Flaherty laced a single to right. The speedy Fairfield University graduate quickly got into scoring position as he stole second standing up. Jim Gormley brought him in with a sharp single to center. With Gormley on second and two out, John Murray lined a vicious shot to third that would have gone for extra bases had it not been for the quick play of Orioles third baseman Dick Holmstrom, who grabbed it for the final out of the inning.

The Orioles went out easily in the first as Al Crowell turned a strike into a double play by picking a runner off third.

The Nitros went out in order in the second but the Orioles picked up a run as Gormley ran into control difficulty. The lead off batter reached on an error and then the only Orioles hit of the game put runners on first and second. The next batter went down swinging but a walk and a hit batsman brought in a run. The next two batters both batters both struck out to end the inning. After two innings the score was 1-1.

Both teams went out in order in the third and fourth. In the top of the fifth the Nitros seized victory by scoring four.

Paul O'Donnell, former Norwood High hockey and baseball star now attending Boston State College, crashed a double to left the inning. Vito Anello walked and Mike Seery scored them with a single to center.

Jack Flaherty reached on a fielder's choice and stole second where he scored on Guy Abbatte's error. Gormley then scored Guy with a double that hugged the foul line in left.
